WIZARD THEATRE

BIOGRAPH

BIOGRAPH

That the course of true love never run smooth is so often evinced that it is exceptional, indeed, that love's pathway is strewn with roses, devoid of thorns. Trifles light as air become heavy weights of doubt, which are always intensified by tales of sympathizing friends in whom we confide. Such is the theme of this Biograph picture.

THE LITTLE OLD MEN OF THE WOODS

Every child has read in Grimm's Fairy Tales of the trials of Little Princess Snow White. This picture presents her life's story with far greater realism than any book description could do. A picture that will amuse grownups as well as children.

Illustrated Song

We believe there are many persons in Gettysburg who do not attend picture shows because they do not realize what a great amount of instruction and entertainment is to be had by the expenditure of 5 cents. For the benefit of these we wish to call attention to the fact that such noted writers as Richard Harding Davis, Bret Harte, Elbert Hubbard, Rex Beach, are devoting much of their time writing stories for reproduction in moving pictures. This fact is important since it illustrates better than anything else the improvement continually being made in the standard of the pictures.

UNION STATION FOR GETTYSBURG

Retail Merchants' Association Takes up Question of a Union Railroad Station in Gettysburg. Officials Interested.

At the regular meeting of the Gettysburg Retail Merchants' Association held on Friday evening it was reported that advances had been made on the part of a representative of the Philadelphia and Reading railroad in the matter of securing a union station in Gettysburg. He suggested the proper course of action towards accomplishing this result.

A letter is now being drafted asking that the advisability of the proposition be taken up by the two roads, and showing the practicability of the construction of such a station here. It is generally believed that the matter will ultimately be brought to a successful issue as the railroad officials seem to be specially anxious to improve the service here.

The officials of the two roads practically never visit Gettysburg now without first seeing that a meeting is arranged with a committee from the Merchants' Association. During the past week there have been consultations regarding the new spring schedules, the local business men showing in what way they could be arranged so as to prove of the greatest benefit to the town. The question of low rates has also been brought out and the attention of the general passenger agent of the Reading will be called to the request for a $3.00 round trip fare from Philadelphia permanently and a $1.00 round trip from Harrisburg during convention weeks in that city.

The movement towards a union station is in line with what Gettysburg has been wanting for years and with what other towns in this section have also been working for in years past. It will meet with general favor on the part of people in town.

HOGS DEMANDING $10.50

Hogs in York County have reached the highest figures within the past half century. They are commanding 10 1/2 cents per pound, or $10.50 per hundred, live weight. A carload of seventy eight fine ones was received by Jacob A. Grim, of Dallastown, from the lower end of the county, where he purchased them personally at different points and they are being sold at from $8 to $12.50 apiece. The same hogs could have been bought at this time last year at 40 percent less. The present price, old citizens say, is more than 150 per cent higher than a few years after the war. In consequence of the high prices and an equal rise in the price of foodstuffs there has been a remarkable falling off in the raising of them in the towns. For years almost everybody had their hogs and butchers. It is different now.

SUMMIT MAKES MERRY

A wedding was solemnized in the little mountain town of Highfield, Md., at 1.30, Thursday afternoon, when Charles Bireley, aged 35 and Miss Nettie Miller, aged 30, were united in marriage by the Rev. S. Shimp, of the Church of God, Cascade, Md.

The date of the wedding had been announced a fortnight previous to the event and friends of the contracting parties residing at Blue Ridge Summit, Highfield, Pennersville, Cascade, Chairman and as far down as Seven Stars, had made necessary preparations to celebrate the affair by giving the happy couple a rousing reception directly after the knot had been tied.

BIG ICE HARVEST

A very big ice crop is being cut off Lake Royer and stored away in the large houses built along the banks of the lake. Thus far eight of the houses have been two-thirds filled with ice twelve inches thick. The ice on the lake is sixteen inches thick but this makes an inconvenient size for handling and storing and so each big cake is shaved down to twelve inches before it is packed away in the house.

TO ISSUE STOCK

The bill authorizing the Western Maryland Railroad to sell its unused stock has been passed by the Maryland Legislature with its adoption in the House. The company desires to extend its lines to form connections making it the Eastern terminal of the Pittsburgh & Lake Erie Railroad, a subsidiary of the New York Central.

GOOD SALE

The sale of Mrs. C. F. Glass and Maud E. Geisbert held on Friday was very largely attended. The sale amounted to over $2,000. One horse brought $209.50 and a cow $56.00. These prices were the highest realized on stock at the sale though others were not far below.

GIBBONEY AND BERRY SPEAK

Court House Crowded when Law and Order Society Holds its First Public Meeting. Addresses were Exceptionally Fine.

The first public meeting of the Gettysburg Law and Order Society held in the Court House on Friday evening drew to that place one of the largest audiences seen there in recent years. Practically every seat was taken and a great many were standing. The addresses were exceptionally fine and the attention of those present was held for almost two hours by the speakers of the evening.

The audience was composed almost entirely of men, a fact which was commented upon by ex State Treasurer Berry, who said that it showed remarkable interest in Gettysburg. The men in the audience were from all walks of life and there was scarcely an occupation in town not represented there.

Prof. Charles F. Sanders, vice president of the local society, presided and, after a few introductory remarks outlining the purpose of the Gettysburg organization, introduced Dr. Clarence Gibboney for the past twenty two years the successful leader of the Philadelphia Law and Order Society.

Mr. Gibboney devoted a large portion of his time to the work of the society in his city. He told that out of 10,000 arrests made on information of agents of the society, 7,500 had resulted in convictions. During the twenty two years of his connection with the society the number of licensed saloons in Philadelphia has been reduced from over 5,700 to less than 2,000.

Mr. Gibboney spoke of the fact that the law and order society can work only through regularly constituted officers of the law and that they could do nothing which would be out of the regular legal course. He spoke of the organization of such a society being declared by some as a reflection on a town and said "A law and order society is no more an insult to a city than is a church."

The second address of the evening was made by ex State Treasurer William H. Berry. For an hour and a quarter he held his audience at their keenest attention. His speech was one of the clearest, most forceful, and at the same time most interesting and entertaining that has ever been heard in Gettysburg. His arguments were brought out with telling effect and at the conclusion of his vigorous talk he was greeted with prolonged applause from an audience which he had held from start to finish.

Mr. Berry opened by speaking of the vast opportunities and responsibilities of Gettysburg. He said that both the battlefield and the college were sacred trusts; and that "there is not a place in this nation today that ought to be on a higher plane than Gettysburg." He emphasized the necessity of usefulness in the world, saying that just so much as we depart from this doctrine, that much nearer do we get to going back to the jungle and its place of living. He brought out this point with much force, showing that a person is only of use in the world in proportion as he helps and benefits his fellow man.

Mr. Berry, seeing a large number of young men in the room, then took up the liquor question and for the remainder of his speech brought home argument after argument, every person in the audience, whether in favor of or opposed to the liquor traffic, following him closely and being entertained by the address. A number of good stories were told in an entertaining way and Mr. Berry's address made a most decided "hit."

During the evening a collection for the work of the society was lifted and people were given an opportunity of joining by signing such intention on cards which were handed to each member of the audience as he entered the room.

GETTYSBURG WON DEBATE

Local Debating Team Defeated Bucknell University Team on Question of Popular Vote on Election of Senators.

In the first of the annual series of inter-collegiate debates Gettysburg College on Friday evening defeated the team from Bucknell University, the question for debate being "Resolved that United States Senators should be Elected by Popular Vote." Bucknell argued the affirmative and Gettysburg the negative side of the question.

The chapel held an interested audience and the debate was keenly fought from start to finish. The two teams are composed of men who have evidently given debating considerable study and they were well and thoroughly prepared on the subject which they were handling Friday night. All of the speeches were good and many forceful arguments were presented.

The judges were Dr. W. L. Gooding, of Dickinson College, Carlisle; Prof. P. L. Kaye, president of Baltimore City College; and Dr. E. E. Campbell, of Irving College, Mechanicsburg. The vote of the judges was two to one in favor of Gettysburg. Dr. P. M. Bickle presided over the meeting.

The debaters for Gettysburg were G. C. Knipple, C. M. Allabach, and J. T. Jenkins. Bucknell's team was composed of S. U. DePierro, C. W. Cramer and L. A. Timlin.

There were several musical numbers on the program. Misses Rowe and Fabs playing two piano duets and Mr. Derr, of the Preparatory Department, rendered several flute solos.

The winning of this debate gives Gettysburg the opportunity of debating with Lafayette at Easton later in the year. The winner of this next debate captures the series. This distinction fell to Gettysburg last year and, from the ability shown by the local team Friday night, chances are exceptionally good for the honor coming to the college in this place again.

FIRE IN TANEYTOWN

Says the Carroll Record of Taneytown: "An alarm of fire was sounded shortly before 5 o'clock on Wednesday morning, and caused quite an excitement for a short time. The fire was a smoke house on the property of Mrs. John J. Crapster, and the building was burned, together with its contents of meat which was being smoked. The Fire Company promptly responded and prevented the barn and other nearby buildings from being burned. Fortunately the fire was soon discovered and the roofs were wet, which assisted materially in preventing further loss. The fire originated from a smoldering smoke fire on the inside of the building."

SAY SEYLER WAS NOT HOUNDED

Shore Police Angry at Proposed Federal Probe.

DENY THEY ABUSED HIM

Police at Atlantic City Declare Nothing But the Regular Course of Questioning Was Employed to Persuade Seyler to Confess.
Atlantic City, Feb. 26.—Senator Heyburn's resolution for a federal investigation of the third degree methods used to make William Seyler admit he was with Jane Adams the night she met her death, on Young's pier, has aroused the ire of the police officials.
Declaring that nothing but the regular course of questioning was employed, and that the man was persuaded to give his version of the affair, and not hounded into a confession, the officials declare they will welcome any investigation. They say they can prove that no violence was offered the prisoners.
Edmund C. Gaskill, lawyer for William Seyler, has refused openly to declare that the police used violence on his client, but he declares his intention of attacking the evidence obtained from Seyler under constitutional rulings against forcing a man to incriminate himself. Bitter attack will be made on Seyler's alleged confession if it is presented in court during the trial, and Mr. Gaskill believes he will be able to prevent its being told to the jury.
Both William and Orvis Seyler are cheerful in their cell at the county jail, where they will be kept in close confinement until the opening of the May term of court. Mr. Gaskill will make formal application for William Seyler's release or admission to bail under habeas corpus proceedings, but the police say they will be able to present enough evidence to satisfy the court that the man should be held. Bail for Orvis Seyler has been fixed at $2000. As yet no bondsmen have offered security.
Plans for the disinterment of the body of Jane Adams for examination by surgeons retained by Seyler's defense may be abandoned because the use of embalming fluid by the undertaker after the formal autopsy would destroy any chances to make new discoveries that might throw light on the manner in which the girl met her death.
It was learned that the case against Seyler would be rested on a direct charge of murder. Prosecutor Goldenberg declared that no attempt would be made to convict the man of manslaughter or lesser degree than outright murder, and that he would be charged with having been directly responsible for Jane Adams' death.
Seyler's official prosecutors are in possession of the statements of County Physician Souder and of Dr. Emory Marvel, who assisted at the autopsy, that the girl's death was caused by a blow which left her face badly bruised, with a deep cut running to the brain over the left eye. This knowledge will lead to an attempt to prove that Seyler struck the girl before she fell or was thrown over the pier. The police may decide to make an endeavor to prove their case by direct circumstantial evidence, using only that portion of Seyler's asserted confession in which he is said to have admitted having been alone on the pier with the girl on the night of Feb. 4, when she disappeared.

HENPECKING IS LEGALIZED
Court Gives Wife Right to Make Hubby Do the Washing.
Chicago, Ill., Feb. 26.—Just as a means of keeping her husband humble, Mrs. Anna Ulrich has decided that he must do the family washing and help every day with the dishes. These tasks and several others were imposed because Judge Newcomer gave her the power in the Desplaines street court. The husband, Charles Ulrich, was paroled to his wife after being arraigned on a charge of drunkenness.
"The judge told me I could boss him around, and I'm going to keep him out of trouble," said Mrs. Ulrich. "In addition to doing the washing and doing the dishes, I am going to see that he does not stay out at night. I am going to let him have three glasses of beer a day. Beer doesn't hurt anybody that knows when to quit."
"I'll give you a chance," said the court. "You are paroled to this woman. She will collect your wages and give you a daily allowance. She's got to run the house now."

SUES KATHERINE GOULD
Former Convict Seeks to Recover Alleged Loan of $2500.
New York, Feb. 26.—Decision was reserved in a suit for $2400 brought by William C. Woodward, alias "Big Hawley," a former convict, against Katherine Clemmons Gould, who was awarded a decree of separation from her husband, Howard Gould, with alimony of $36,000 a year, last June.
"Big Hawley's" name figured prominently in the separation suit brought by Mrs. Gould. He now alleges that he advanced Mrs. Gould $2400 in 1894, when they were both in London, with the understanding that it should be repaid in 1899. Continuing, the plaintiff sets forth that Mrs. Gould "continuously sought his companionship, not only on the steamship City of Paris, but at the Blackfriars hotel in London," and further that when she was "put out of the Grand hotel, bag and baggage," he advanced her $250 to "help her out of her trouble."
Mrs. Gould in her reply calls attention to testimony of former Police Inspector McLaughlin, given in her suit for separation, that Hawley is known to the police as "an all-around bad man, and a green goods swindler." She denies she ever knew Hawley and says the suit is brought for "some ulterior purpose and can only be carried on by manufactured evidence."

BOY OF TWELVE SLAYS BOBCATS

Perhaps Fatally Wounded in Desperate Fight.

Connellsville, Pa., Feb. 26.—Fighting single-handed against a mountain bob-cat and its mate, Myron Queer, aged twelve years, slew both of the animals with a knife, but not before sustaining wounds which may prove fatal.
Queer is at the home of his father, Levi Queer, a Somerset county farmer, a mass of cuts and gashes.
While in the woods Queer's hound traced a bobcat. Anxious to land the prize, the lad bravely climbed the tree and dislodged the animal, which pounced on the dog. Queer mixed in the conflict.
The unexpected arrival of the bobcat's mate complicated the situation, and instead of fighting for a trophy, it became a battle for life. The boy inflicted mortal wounds upon each of the wildcats, but his dog was killed and himself desperately wounded.

Altoona, Pa., Feb. 26.—With a roar that shook the neighborhood, Thomas G. Magee "brought in" one of the best artesian wells in this section, but in doing so he shot barrels of water 150 feet into the air, deluging the crowd that had gathered to witness the outcome.
John Witmer, a well digger, never saw anything like it and is at a loss to account for the phenomenon. The well is located near city hall in the center of the city and is a real gusher.

Monarch Light Touch
The Value of the
A typewriter is not an automatic machine with a fixed output; the amount of work produced must always be dependent upon the operator.
The operator begins work in the morning with a certain supply of physical energy. With the ordinary heavy working typewriter she exhausts that energy before the day's end—then comes "three o'clock fatigue" and slow, dragging work.
Monarch Light Touch lightens the operator's load—draws less on her energy per folio. The result is that the operator is able to maintain full speed right up to closing time, finishing fresh and strong. Her efficiency is increased, the output of her machine is enlarged, and consequently the per folio cost of typewriting to her employer is reduced.
Let us demonstrate this and other Monarch features to you.

WON'T ARBITRATE TROLLEY STRIKE

Phila. Company Rejects Min- isters' Suggestion.

ARREST LEADER OF MEN

John Murphy Charged With Conspir- acy to Incite a Riot—Constabulary Patrolling Riot Zone—Court Shows No Mercy to Rioters.

Philadelphia, Feb. 26.—City hall de- tectives arrested John J. Murphy, president of the Central Labor union, on a warrant charging him with in- citing to riot.

Murphy is alleged to have said in a speech: "You can depend on it that at Sunday's meeting a general strike will be called. If one man is shot in Kensington there will follow a car- nival of riot and bloodshed that will startle the country. I should not care to be responsible for such an out- break. The state police would be help- less. I want it understood that there are men in the northeast part of the city who can shoot as straight as any trooper who ever drew breath. Just you wait a little while for develop- ments and you will see something that will open your eyes."

The Rapid Transit company replied to the edgymen of the city by a flat refusal to arbitrate anything. Every hour the company is gaining confi- dence in its ability to beat its striking employees, and it is in no mood to patch up differences.

After acknowledging contemptu- ously the interest displayed by the min- isters, President Kruger, with the au- thority of his board of directors, who had a special meeting, wrote:

"Company's Statement.
"There were but two real questions at the bottom of this strike.

"First—The right of our employees to deal directly with us without the intervention of an organization or offi- cers controlled by outside men.

"Second—The right of this company to have the same freedom in hiring or discharging men that the men have in staying with or leaving this company.

"These rights are fundamental and inalienable and do not submit them- selves to any form of arbitration. To surrender them to any outside inter- est would be to obligate the manage- ment of the corporation which duty the law imposes on us as directors.

"An adjustment of all ques- tions, such as wages, schedules, conditions of labor, etc., was being satisfactorily proceeded with by direct negotia- tion between our employees and our executive officials, when the present strike was precipitated without an hour's warning.

"As soon as normal conditions are restored, should there be any ques- tion needing adjustment, they will be taken up."

The Rapid Transit company in an- other statement added that it would be willing to take back into its employ such of the strikers as have clean rec- ords and who were working for the company before Feb. 19. But they must get back on the job before March 1, or stay out for good and all. If they break the strike and return to work the company guarantees that they will continue to have their rights in the pension fund, and will not be deprived of the right to enjoy the in- crease of pay, amounting to a cent an hour, which goes into effect on July 1 next. At present the men are getting 22 cents an hour. By an arrangement entered into last year the pay will be made 23 cents an hour on July 1, 1910; 24 cents an hour on July 1, 1911, and 25 cents an hour on July 1, 1912.

Recognition of Union or Bust.
It can be stated positively that there is one thing the company will never agree to. If the strike lasts a year—recognition of Pratt's union exclusiv- ly. The danger of protracted striking lies in this, that recognition of the union is the only thing the strikers really care for. It is recognition or bust with them.

The Rapid Transit company had in operation Friday about 50 per cent of its normal car service. There would have been, the company reported, even more marked improvement if there had been a sufficient number of con- ductors and motormen to take out the cars. Cars were running at two minute intervals, and they were well pat- ternized.

The company failed to send out cars from only one barn, the station at Sec- ond and Wyoming streets. Only one in six of the cars was guarded by a po- liceman, the recession of disorder giv- ing the city policemen a chance to go home and get some sleep. Germantown, Kensington and other districts where shooting and brick throwing had been constant until the coming of the state constables were calm and untroubled. The company maintained service in these sections during the day and up until midnight, keeping 126 cars in commission after dark.

Some idea of the financial loss to the Rapid Transit company that the strike has entailed may be gained by the company's report that 250,658 fares were collected Thursday. Ordin- arily from 1,500,000 to 1,700,000 fares are turned in. It is not to be sup- posed that the fares turned in repre- sents the real business done by the cars. In times like these strike break- ers have a little habit of throwing nickels up at the bell and anything that sticks belongs to the company.

SPENT A FORTUNE ON SKIN TROUBLE

But Lost All Hopes of Cure—Grew Worse and Worse in Spite of Many Doctors and Three Years of Hos- pital Treatment—Inflammation Made Her Almost Crazy with Pain.

CURED BY TWO SETS OF CUTICURA REMEDIES

"I began to have an itching over my whole body, and it grew worse and worse until it settled in my limbs, from the knee to the toes. I went to see a great many physicians, and a doctor which cost me a fortune, and I tried every remedy I could get my hands on. I went for three years to the hospital. But they were unable to help me there. I used all the medicines that I could see but became worse and worse. I had an inflammation which made me almost crazy with pain. When I showed my foot to a friend, they would not really light- ened. I did not know what to do. I was so sick and had become so nervous that I positively lost all hope.

"I had seen the advertisement of the Cuticura Remedies, and told you that I was never so pleased as when I noticed that, after having used two sets of Cuticura, I was cured. I had used Cuticura Plaster, the entire inflamma- tion had gone. I was completely cured. I should be only too glad if people with a similar disease would come to me and I would tell them how I was cured and was cured by the Cuticura Remedies after many other treatments failed. Mrs. Bertha Sachs, 321 E. 90th St., New York, N. Y. Secretary of the Deutsch-ameri- kan Verein, Kempner Hebrew Benevo- lent Society, etc."

A single set of Cuticura Remedies, costing but one dollar, consisting of Soap to cleanse, Ointment to heal and Pills to purify, has frequently cured chronic cases of torturing, disgusting humors of infants, children and adults when the best methods known to the profession had failed. Guaranteed absolutely pure. Cuticura Remedies are sold throughout the world. Price: Soap, 25c; Ointment, 50c; Pills, 50c. Sold by all druggists. Book on "Scalp and Skin Diseases" sent on request.

PATROLLING THE STREETS

State Constabulary a Fight- ing Organization on Duty.

Captain Jack Groome's cavalymen of the state constabulary had such a dull time that they were yawning on the backs of their horses. They came here expecting real trouble. Prompt and summary action by these men, as well as the reputation they gained in the coal mining country, created in- stantly here a wholesome respect for their prowess. They have a reputation of getting the man they go after. They showed several times Friday how they do it. A youth in Germantown avenue was foolish enough to shout bad names at one of the troopers. He was told twice to keep his mouth shut, but, encouraged by the applause of a crowd, he finally made a nasty remark that made the trooper leap from his horse.

The constable went into the crowd, diving like a fullback with ten yards to gain on the third down. He ripped into the crowd with feet and elbows and yanked the youth from a cigar store where he had taken refuge. The crowd swirled excitedly, but nobody lifted a hand to rescue the young man. Meanwhile the trooper's horse stood rigidly where it had been left, the bridle rein drooping over its head. The constable turned his prisoner over to a city cop and the young man was dumped into a patrol wagon.

Threats of General Strike.

Despite the threats of President Murphy, of the Central Labor union, that a general strike is imminent, Philadelphians do not believe that any such thing will take place. In the first place Philadelphia is not a strong union town. There are far more work- men out of unions than in them. There has never been a successful general strike here, and few people believe, on account of the peculiar lo- cal conditions, that there ever will be.

Murphy says that he has the au- thorization of Samuel Gompers, head of the American Federation of Labor, but the officials of the Rapid Transit company have information that Gompers has notified Murphy quietly to keep his hands off. Furthermore, busi- ness conditions are such at present that a general strike would not be ruinous to the city's industries. The latest word from Murphy and Pratt is that if the Rapid Transit company does not agree before Sunday night to submit the differences between it and the strikers to arbitration a gen- eral strike will be called.

STEEL STRIKERS RIOT

Violence Breaks Out at Schwab Plant at South Bethlehem.

South Bethlehem, Pa., Feb. 26.— Taking advantage of the fact that the entire force of state constabulary is at Philadelphia and beyond call, and that the local police will be unable to cope with the situation, Bethlehem Steel company strikers resorted to violence in attempting to keep workmen from going to work.

The steel company issued orders closing down the entire plant until the authorities can afford the company's employees adequate protection.

A crowd of 500 foreigners stationed as pickets at various points near the works was soon worked up to a frenzy and pitched hand to hand fights occurred. The foreigners seized the dinner pails the workmen were carrying and either emptied them of their contents or smashed them against poles.

E. G. Grace, the general manager of the plant, was roughly handled by the strikers. He had just left a trolley car to enter the main offices, when a crowd gathered there jostled him. Two blows in the face felled him, and he was rolled around the dirty street, but managed to escape with no serious in- jury.

The local police force were power- less before the crowd. When they tried to interfere, strikers picked them up bodily and carrying them several blocks, told them to keep away from the trouble.

Trolley cars were held up while the strikers were trying to drag off the workmen from Allentown. Windows of the cars were broken and other prop- erty destroyed. At the gates to the works the strikers prevented the men from entering, but no serious injuries resulted.

As it is impossible to recall the state constabulary, it is now probable that companies B and D of the National Guard, stationed at Allentown, will be called out if their services are needed. The strike leaders are urging the men not to resort to violence, but it is not believed they will be able to control them if the strike continues much longer.

Five Years

of Heart Trouble Cured by
Dr. Miles' Heart Remedy

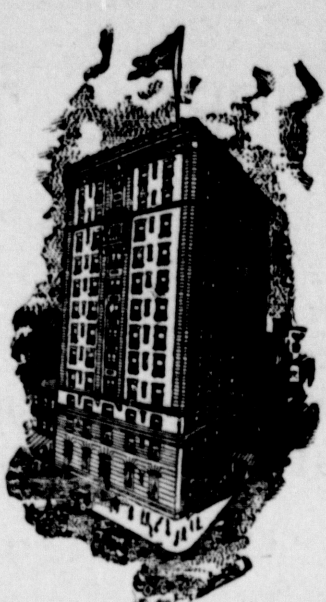

"Before I began taking Dr. Miles' Heart Remedy I had been suffering from heart trouble for over five years. I had pains in my left side, and under my right shoulder blade, and could not sleep on the left side, and was so short of breath the least exertion would bring on the most distressing palpitation. I had scarcely taken a half bottle of the Heart Remedy before I could see a marked change in my condition. When I had taken six bottles I was cured."

MRS. C. C. GORKEY,
Northfield, Va.

If there is fluttering or palpitation it is an indication of a weakness of the nerves and muscles of the heart. It is not necessarily diseased—just weak from over-work. The heart may be weak just the same as the eyes, stomach or other organs. You can make a weak heart strong by taking Dr. Miles' Heart Remedy. Get a bottle from your druggist, take it according to directions, and if it does not benefit he will return your money.

TESTED AND PROVEN

There is a Heap of Solace in Being Able to Depend Upon a Well-Earned Reputation.

For months Gettysburg readers have seen the constant expression of praise for Doan's Kidney Pills, and read about the good work they have done in this locality. Not another remedy ever produced such convincing proof of merit.

Mrs. Charles Kennel, 401 S. Washington St., Gettysburg, Pa., says: "I publicly recommended Doan's Kidney Pills two years ago and I have not changed my opinion of them. I still consider this remedy the best one on the market for kidney trouble. A member of my family suffered from rheumatism and kidney complaint and was subject to acute attacks of backache. There was a stiffness and lameness across the loins, especially noticeable in the morning and a tired, languid feeling was in evidence. Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at the People's Drug Store, brought the first relief that had ever been received and when they have been taken since then, benefit has always followed. It gives me great pleasure to tell of the merits of this remedy."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents, Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

BALDHEADED ROW

Early Piety Not Always the Cause of Baldness.

Inasmuch as it is an accepted fact that baldness, falling hair and dandruff are caused by a germ, doesn't it stand to reason that the only way to prevent such calamities is to kill the germs?

And doesn't it stand to reason that the only way to kill these germs is to use Parisian Sage, which People's Drug Store has so much faith in that they guarantee it to cure dandruff, falling hair and itching scalp in two weeks, or money back?

Parisian Sage is a delightful hair tonic and is pleasant to use. It is not sticky or greasy, and contains only those ingredients that will surely benefit.

It is now sold by druggists all over America, and by People's Drug Store for 50 cents a large bottle. It is used extensively by women who desire luxuriant hair with a radiant luster. The girl with the Auburn hair is on every package.
